Motion carried unanimously.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

M/S (Snow/Enger): To approve the April 5-6, 2018 Commission meeting minutes as printed. Motion carried unanimously.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT

Commission Administrator Lisa Colón Durham (unless indicated otherwise) reported on the following:

- 1) Lisa Colón Durham shared with members of the PSC information regarding the Educator Career Fairs, held in April and May in Regions I (Coeur d'Alene), III (Nampa), and IV (Twin Falls). The Region I Career Fair saw 6 LEA attendees, with 5 total job seekers (3 certificated, 2 career changers). The Region III Career Fair saw 11 LEA attendees, with 29 total job seekers (25 certificated, 3 career changers, 1 currently enrolled in an educator preparation program). The Region IV Career Fair saw 7 total LEA attendees and 11 total job seekers (8 certificated, 2 career changers, and 1 currently enrolled). Regional Career Fairs were also put on by the University of Idaho and Idaho State University. In addition, Cina Lackey and Shannon Miner were in attendance of a career fair put on by the Idaho Department of Labor, which saw 16 total job seekers, with six (6) of those job seekers being referred to CTE.
- 2) Lisa Colón Durham introduced Katie Mathias as the new PSC Coordinator.
- 3) Lisa Colón Durham introduced Peter McPherson as the new Chief Deputy Superintendent.

- 4) Lisa Colón Durham shared that the Idaho State Police has adjusted its fee structure for the processing of background investigation checks. Both employment and licensure background investigation checks and volunteer background investigation checks saw a $5.00 fee reduction, with prices being $27.00 for all employment and licensure background checks and $25.75 for volunteer background checks. The fee changes take effect July 1, 2018.
- 5) Lisa Colón Durham reported changes made to the Assignment Credential Manual, in which many endorsements were removed in an effort to make the process easier for school districts and charter schools. A crosswalk has been included in the new document which will help establish equivalents from the previous version to the updated version.
- 6) Lisa Colón Durham reported that at the June 2018 State Board of Education meeting all proposed Standards and Endorsement revisions were reviewed and accepted. The revisions are considered pending and are subject to an open public comment period before going before the Legislature in January 2019.
- 7) Lisa Colón Durham reported the Program Review schedule for 2018-2019, in which Northwest Nazarene University will have a focused visit September 29-October 2, 2018; Brigham Young University-Idaho will have a focused visit October 23-26, 2018; Idaho State University will have a focused visit November 10-13, 2018; and the review of the American Board for Certification of Teacher Excellence is to be determined for Spring 2019.
- 8) Lisa Colón Durham reported that the standards review for Exceptional Child Generalist, Blind/Visual Impairment, Deaf/Hard of Hearing, Blended Early Childhood/Early Childhood Special Education was held May 3-4, 2018. The School Counselor, School Social Worker, School Psychologist standards review will be held November 1-2, 2018.
- 9) Lisa Colón Durham reported on recent staff travel. Cina Lackey attended the National Association for Alternative Certification (NAAC) Annual Meeting in Las Vegas, Nevada from April 4-6, 2018. Key takeaways from the conference were the “attitude gap,” or “the gap between those educators who have the will to be great at their craft and those who do not.” Lisa Colón Durham and Cina Lackey attended the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) June 9-12, 2018. Key Takeaways were the story of Michelle Kuo, author of “Reading with Patrick,” a story of Ms. Kuo’s experience with the Teach for America program in Arkansas; the discussion of state reciprocity and attempts at eliminating extra requirements for those individuals interested in transferring their teaching credential from state to another; micro-credentialing, a concept that would allow educators to take coursework and demonstrate application of the coursework into their classrooms to earn a ‘micro-credential’ in focused areas; and the Learning Policy Institute, which provides an interactive map on data collected regarding educator support and satisfaction. The interactive map can be found on the Learning Policy Institute website.
- 10) Upcoming staff travel includes the ISEE Roadshow from August 7-9 and August 13-14, 2018, which Cina Lackey will be attending; the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Annual Conference Planning Meeting August 24-26, 2018, which Lisa Colón Durham will be attending; and the Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO) conference September 15-19, 2018, which Lisa Colón Durham will also be attending.

STATE BOARD REPORT

Christina Linder, Educator Effectiveness Program Manager in the State Board Office (SBOE), reported on the following:

- 1) Christina Linder reported on Title II Data and the Teacher Pipeline, which collected information such as 1/3 of individuals prepared by an Idaho educator preparation program reportedly never teaching in the state. The FY18 report will be going to the December 2018 Board Meeting.
- 2) Christina Linder reported on changes in process to Evaluation Reviews, which include selection to avoid duplication, teacher selection done in advance, a smaller sample size, and the teacher survey being directly emailed.
- 3) Christina Linder reported on workshops and technical assistance provided to educators from September through October 2018 regarding Evaluation Review Training and MEP which would go from 4-6pm so that educators could attend.
- 4) Christina Linder reported on STEM Administrator training, in partnership with IDLA, the SDE, and STEM AC. The training is modeled after Utah Principal's Academy and supports STEM School Certification.

CONSIDERATION OF STIPULATION/FINAL ORDERS BY FULL COMMISSION

For more information please see the Communication Plan.

The Commission accepted the report of the Authorizations Committee. Motion carried unanimously.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

In Chair Tony Roark's absence, PSC Coordinator Katie Mathias called member's attention to the budget narrative for March 2018. For that time period, revenue was $41,435, with expenditures for the month of March totaling $37,963 and revenue exceeding expenditures by $3,472. In addition to routine operational costs, approximately $2,300 was spent for ethics investigations and hearings. Administrative and office supplies were around $2,000 due to the cost of a microphone kit, credential paper, and the purchase of a printer for certification.

For the month of April, 2018, revenue was $41,810, with expenditures for the month totaling $51,435 and expenditures exceeding revenue by $9,625. In addition to routine operational costs, about $6,100 was expended for the April PSC meeting, $1,366 was spent on the April Career Fairs, and NASDTEC dues totaled $4,500. In preparation for the May Special Education and Early Childhood Standards Review $1,054 was expended. Higher Education Focused Visits and Program Reviews came to $777.

For the month of May, 2018, revenue was $69,890, with expenditures for the month of May totaling $44,590, and revenue exceeding expenditures by $25,300. In addition to routine operational costs, $966 was expended for the April PSC meeting. $360 was spent for Cina to attend the NAAC conference. In addition, about $6,400 was expended for the Special Education and Early Childhood Standards Review. Higher Education Focused Visits and Program Reviews came to $1,627.

M/S (Saffle/Davis): To accept the proposed Certification and Professional Standards budget for FY2019. Motion carried unanimously.

The Commission ACCEPTED the report of the Budget Committee. Motion carried unanimously.

STANDARDS COMMITTEE

Chair Dana Johnson reported that at its June 21, 2018, meeting the Standards Committee reviewed the Praxis requirements for the Early Childhood/Early Childhood Special Education Birth-Grade 3 endorsement.
