Want to teach? Connect with schools at Career Fair Tuesday in Nampa

(BOISE) – Aspiring educators will have a one-stop opportunity to meet with prospective employers from 16 area school districts and charter schools Tuesday evening, April 9, in Nampa.

The Region III Educator Career Fair is set from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Hampton Inn & Suites at the Idaho Center, 5750 East Franklin Road, Nampa.

The State Department of Education offers Educator Career Fairs free to districts and to teachers, aiming to help fill Idaho teaching vacancies and keep promising educators in Idaho.

Recent graduates from education bachelor's degree programs, professionals in other fields seeking a career change, education majors within a year of graduation and holders of Idaho teaching certificates all are invited to attend and find out about job opportunities.

The Educator Career Fair, now in its fifth year, also assists districts in their recruitment efforts and provides a resource for Idaho teacher education programs aiming to place their graduates.

Upcoming career fairs are scheduled May 8 in Blackfoot, May 9 in Twin Falls and May 14 in Coeur d'Alene.

For more information on pathways to becoming an Idaho Educator, check out the SDE's Be An Educator program.
