SAT Suite

Test Overview

For millions of students, the SAT helps them connect with and stand out to colleges

- The SAT is key to helping identify students from unknown backgrounds and helping them succeed
- The SAT is more fair than other measures in many ways, and differentiates beyond (and with) GPA
- Scores should always be in context, and the SAT should not be the only, or even the most, important factor in admissions

Whether scores are required or optional, the SAT remains an important part of the admissions process.

Beyond the Admissions Decision: New Trends in Test Score Use

<https://higher.ed.collegeboard.org/testscoreusecasestudies>

Key Findings

Providing clear and detailed information about testing policies builds trust and reduces confusion.

SAT scores can be invaluable for a range of purposes including course placement, understanding the incoming class, developing retention models and allocating support resources.

Understanding students' SAT scores alongside college outcome data can help inform testing policies that align with institutional priorities

The SAT has two modules in each section

Reading & Writing Section

Module 1

Students are given a broad mix of easy, medium, and hard questions.

Module 2

Students are given a targeted mix of questions of varying difficulties based on their performance in module 1

Math Section

Multi-Stage Adaptive Testing vs Item Level Adaptive Testing

	Multi-Stage Adaptive Testing (MST)	Item Adaptive
Test Delivery	Sets of questions (called modules)	One item at a time
Adaptive	Based on how students perform in the previous module	Based on a student responds to each question
Navigation	Students can review items within a module	Students are not able to go back to a question
Test Length	Supports shorter test lengths	Supports shorter test lengths
Examples	GRE, digital SAT	ACCUPLACER, SBAC, NWEA – MAP, NCLEX

Benefits of Multi-Stage Adaptive Testing

1

Shorter Tests

2

Questions are tailored according to students' achievement

3

Allows students to navigate back to questions within a module

4

More secure testing

5

Allows disruptions in internet connectivity

6

More precise measurement

The screenshot displays the Bluebook user interface. At the top, the Bluebook logo is on the left, and the user's name 'Sofia Aguilar' with a profile icon is on the right. A blue banner contains the message: 'Hi, Sofía! Take a practice test and get ready for test day.' Below this, there are two main panels. The left panel, titled 'Your Tests', shows details for an 'SAT' test, including the date, school name (Springfield High School), and testing accommodations: 'Reading: Up to double time (<+100%)', 'Math: Up to double time (<+100%)', and 'Breaks: as needed'. A yellow 'Check In Now' button is at the bottom right of this panel. The right panel is a modal dialog titled 'Confirm Your Personal Information'. The main content area is titled 'Check Your Work' and contains the following text: 'Look over your work, go back to questions you marked for review, and answer any questions you skipped. Remember: there's no penalty for guessing. When the timer reaches zero, you'll automatically move on. Please stay seated and remain quiet.' Below this text is a grid of question numbers from 1 to 27, arranged in three rows. The first row contains numbers 1-10, the second row contains 11-20, and the third row contains 21-27. Above the grid, there are two filters: 'Unanswered' (represented by a dashed box icon) and 'For Review' (represented by a red flag icon). At the bottom of the screen, the user's name 'Sofia Aguilar' is displayed on the left, and 'Back' and 'Next' buttons are on the right.

Confirmation Modal

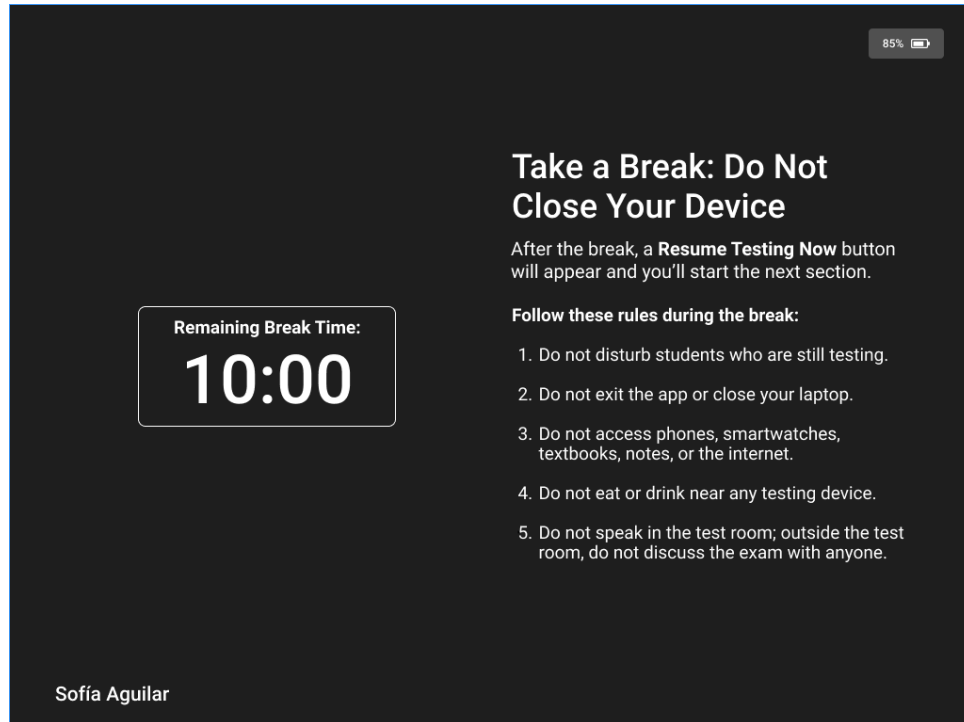

Safeguards to prevent accidental or unconsidered opting out of Extended Time

- When the student clicks “Next”, they will need to confirm their understanding that they cannot return to the module/part if they opt to move forward.
- If in this confirmation modal they check the box and click “Next” again, only then will they proceed to the end of module screen and rejoin the existing flow of the exam.

Break Screens

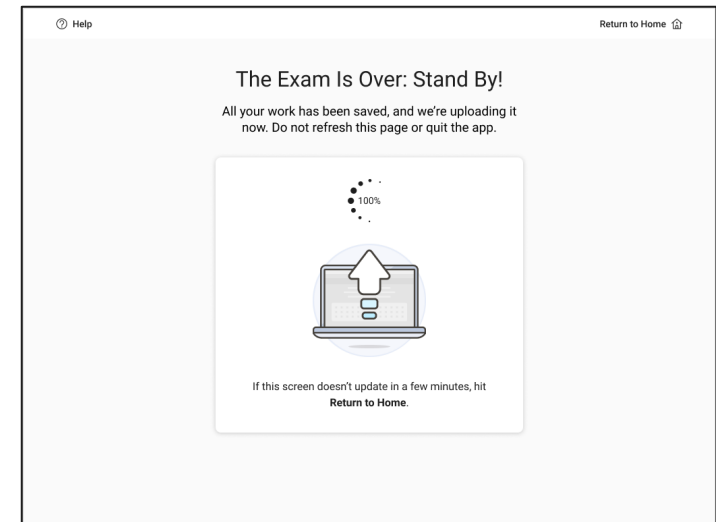

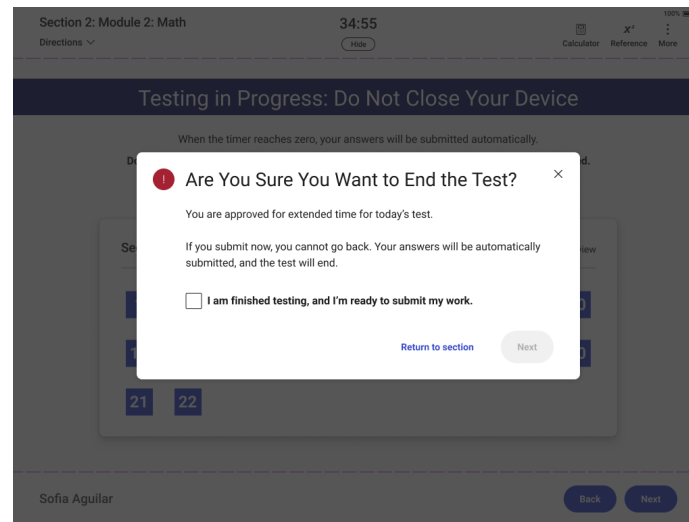

Break screens do not change for Extended Time testers

End of Module/End of Test Review Screen

Safeguards to prevent accidental or unconsidered ending of the exam with Extended Time remaining

- The final review screen follows the same safeguards as the end of module screens:
 - The new “Next” button for extended time testers is inactive until standard time has been reached.
 - If the student clicks “Next”, a confirmation modal appears that also emphasizes that confirming will end the test.
