(BOISE) – Superintendent Ybarra presented this morning before the Joint Finance and Appropriations Committee (JFAC), delivering the details of the proposed FY17 public schools budget and the department operational budget.

The Superintendent addressed the committee for just under an hour on details of the public schools budget request, highlighting many line items such as returning discretionary funding back to the comparable FY09 levels, a request to fund Idaho's first Rural Education Center, and also a request to fund the second year of the Career Ladder. More details on all line item requests may be found on the supplemental documents provided.

Questions and comments regarding details of the FY17 public schools budget, or the department operational budget may be directed to Jeff Church at (208) 332-6934 or by email at jchurch@sde.idaho.gov.
