Superintendent Ybarra to visit Idaho Falls school during Roadshow Wednesday

As part of her statewide Legislative Roadshow to discuss the latest education developments with Idaho educators, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Sherri Ybarra will visit Rocky Mountain Middle School in Idaho Falls at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Media members are welcome to attend, and also to check out the various Idaho Falls Roadshow sessions with State Department of Education staff discussing public school finance, legislation and IDAPA rules, school safety and security, mastery education and ethics. The daylong session, the final outing in this year's Roadshow, is scheduled from 9:30 to 11:45 a.m. and from 12:30 to 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Hilton Garden Inn in Idaho Falls. Find the full agenda and archived presentations on the SDE website.

Throughout the Roadshow, the Superintendent works in visits to local schools – in Coeur d'Alene and Lewiston last week, and in Twin Falls and Idaho Falls this week. Read more about the Roadshow in last week's news release.
