Want to teach? Connect with schools at career fair in Coeur d'Alene May 14

(BOISE) – Aspiring educators will have a one-stop opportunity to meet with prospective employers from Region I and II school districts and charter schools in Coeur d'Alene Tuesday evening, May 14.

The State Department of Education offers Educator Career Fairs free to districts and to teachers across the state, aiming to help fill teaching vacancies and keep promising educators in Idaho.

Tuesday's career fair is set from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Best Western Plus Coeur d'Alene Inn, 506 W. Appleway Ave.

Recent graduates from education bachelor's degree programs, professionals in other fields seeking a career change, education majors within a year of graduation and holders of Idaho teaching certificates are invited to attend and find out about job opportunities.

The Educator Career Fair, now in its fifth year, also assists districts in their recruitment efforts and provides a resource for Idaho teacher education programs aiming to place their graduates. Earlier this spring, career fairs were held in Nampa, Twin Falls and Blackfoot.

For more information on pathways to becoming an Idaho educator, check out the SDE's Be An Educator program.
