Superintendent Ybarra visits Coeur d’Alene, Rathdrum schools for listening tour

(BOISE) – Superintendent of Public Instruction Sherri Ybarra is heading to North Idaho this week as part of a “winter tour” to hear from Idaho educators about the issues and priorities that are most important for them.

Reporters and photographers are welcome to drop in for the listening sessions, and individual interviews may be available.

On Wednesday, Dec. 12, Superintendent Ybarra plans visits to schools in the Coeur d’Alene and Lakeland school districts, plus a listening session with Region 1 school district superintendents:

- 9 -10 a.m., Region 1 superintendents meeting at Midtown Center, 1505 N. 5th St.. Coeur d’Alene
- 10:30 -11:30 a.m., school visit with Dr. Steven Cook, Coeur d’Alene district superintendent, at Lakes Middle School, 930 N. 15th St., Coeur d’Alene
- 1:15 -2:15 p.m., school visit with Dr. Becky Meyer, Lakeland district superintendent, at Mountain View Alternative High School, 7802 Main St., Rathdrum

The media contact for the Lakes Middle School visit is Scott Maben, 208-664-8241. The media contact for the Mountain View Alternative High School is Lisa Sexton, 208-687-0431 ext. 1111.

Superintendent Ybarra kicked off her winter listening tour Nov. 28-29 with visits in the Twin Falls and Pocatello/Chubbuck school districts plus regional superintendents’ meetings.
