TWIN FALLS SCHOOL DISTRICT STUDENT ANNOUNCED AS 2016 HOLIDAY CARD CONTEST WINNER

(BOISE) – Sawtooth Elementary in the Twin Falls School District is the school of a fifth-grade student and winner of the Idaho State Department of Education’s Holiday Card Contest, Superintendent Ybarra announced today.

In her holiday card contest submission, fifth-grader Kylee Thiel drew a penguin with a scarf, surrounded by presents. Her artwork will be featured on the Idaho State Department of Education’s holiday greeting card. She also will receive a certificate and copies of the greeting card to share with her friends and family members.

“I am always so impressed with the effort and creativity of students who submit artwork for the Holiday Card Contest,” Superintendent Sherri Ybarra said. “I would like to personally congratulate Kylee for her wonderful artwork, and for all of the amazing artwork that was submitted by students across the state.”

Superintendent Ybarra would also like to recognize the following grade-level winners and their amazing artwork which is posted at <http://www.sde.idaho.gov/site/recognition-programs/holiday-card.htm>.
