

Using the Framework for Teaching Instructional Coaches

Day 1 Instructional Coach Training

Calibrate and deepen knowledge of the Framework for Teaching

Explore the power of the common language and understanding of the Framework

Dip into the concept of Nature of Engagement

Day 2 Instructional Coach Training

Working with the domains...deeper

Continuum of Support

Coaching Skills

Paraphrasing Practice

Evidence, Opinion, Bias and Interpretation

Evidence Collection

3R Protocol

Best Practices in Observation as a coach

Day 3 Instructional Coach Training

Distinguish between evidence and opinion

Minimize observer error

Collect classroom based evidence

Align evidence to Domains and components

Examine evidence against critical attributes to determine level of performance

Calibrate

Day 4 Instructional Coach Training

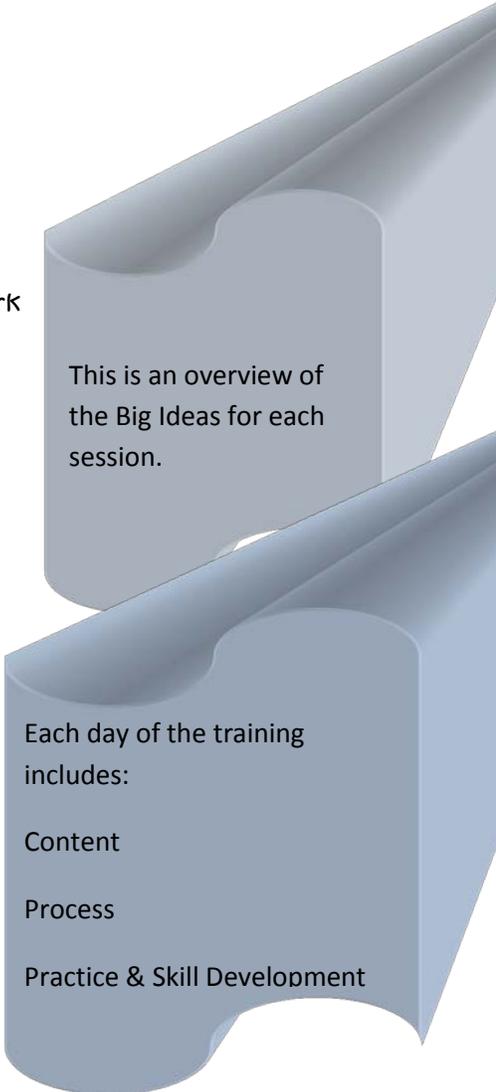

Why Professional Conversations

Learning Focused conversations

Continuum of Support

Explore nature of inquiry

Coaching Practice

This is an overview of the Big Ideas for each session.

Each day of the training includes:

Content

Process

Practice & Skill Development

Overarching Themes:

Understanding and Application of the following concepts:

- Knowledge of the Framework for Teaching
- Observing and planning for student engagement
- Continuum of support for teachers
 - Observation concept, skills, and protocols
 - Conversation skills that lead to improved classroom practice