

General Education Matriculation (GEM) Framework

GEM courses are universally accepted across all public institutions in Idaho. For students who are starting their college pathways, focusing on GEM courses early on will help ensure that courses taken by the student attribute to program/degree completion. By completing these courses student can earn a GEM certificate.

Written Communication:

6 credit minimum

1. _____ Credits: _____
2. _____ Credits: _____

Oral Communication:

2 credits minimum

3. _____ Credits: _____

Mathematical Ways of Knowing:

3 credits minimum

4. _____ Credits: _____

Scientific Ways of Knowing:

7 credits minimum

5. _____ Credits: _____
6. _____ Credits: _____
7. _____ Credits: _____

Humanistic & Artistic Ways of Knowing:

6 credit minimum (2 different disciplines)

8. _____ Credits: _____
9. _____ Credits: _____

Social & Behavioral Ways of Knowing:

6 credit minimum (2 different disciplines)

10. _____ Credits: _____
11. _____ Credits: _____
12. _____ Credits: _____

Institution Specific:

6 credit minimum

13. _____ Credits: _____
14. _____ Credits: _____